ST. JOHN'S
UNIVERSITY

St. John's University

is a Catholic and Vincentian University that prepares students for personal and professional success in today's global society.

STATEN ISLAND

QUEENS

MANHATTAN

"The close-knit and supportive community is great for veteran and military students. The relationships I built with the deans and faculty helped me transition into college. My department provided experiences outside the classroom and connected us with community leaders. St. John's is focused on our success."

—Raymond McAuliffe,
US Navy, '13CPS

St. John's University is committed to supporting active military and veteran students and their families. As part of our mission of success, we seek to provide all students with a smooth transition into starting or continuing their college education.

We are prepared to evaluate your military training, college course work, and/or prior learning for credit, outline what courses are still needed, and develop a manageable degree plan that fits your schedule. You can

- Have up to 90 transfer credits accepted, including credits for life, work, and military experience.*
- Utilize VA education and Military Tuition Assistance benefits.
- Take advantage of the Yellow Ribbon Program.
- Receive personalized career and academic advisement from your dean or academic advisor.

* Some program exclusions apply. Credit for prior learning may be done through a portfolio process with your academic advisor.

To learn more about the academic programs offered at our New York campuses, visit stjohns.edu/majors.

Step 1: Speak with your St. John's military/veteran admission counselor.

- Discuss degree programs that will help you meet your educational goals.

Step 2: Apply

- Submit your application online at stjohns.edu/apply.
- Freshman application—applicants who have not attended college or completed college coursework
- Transfer application—applicants who have completed some college-level coursework after high school graduation
- Online learning application—applicants interested in online undergraduate programs

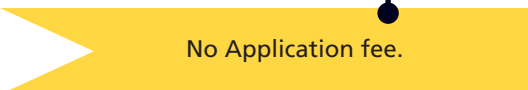

Step 3: Submit Supporting Documents

- Transcripts
Transfer applicants must submit official college transcripts from all institutions attended. An official high school transcript or official GED scores will be required for any applicant who will not complete an associate's degree before transferring. Unofficial transcripts may be accepted temporarily to render an admission decision.
- First-time freshman applicants must submit a final official high school transcript.
- Standardized Test Scores
First-year undergraduate applicants are required to submit standardized test scores unless applying test-optional. Please refer to stjohns.edu/TestOptional for more information about applying test-optional.

- Request Your official Joint Services Transcript (JST) or Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) transcript.
- Apply for Service Member or Veteran Benefits
 - GI Bill® education benefits
 - Department of Defense tuition assistance, if applicable
 - See pages 11–13 for information about commonly accepted education benefit programs.
- Apply for Financial Aid
 - Free Application for Federal Student Aid at fafsa.ed.gov
 - New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) at hesc.ny.gov
 - New York State Veterans Tuition Award (VTA) at hesc.ny.gov
 - New York National Guard tuition benefit (if eligible) at dmna.state.ny.us/education

Step 4: After you are Admitted

- Meet with your academic advisor to discuss transfer credits and your course schedule.
- Provide your Certificate of Eligibility (COE) to one of the St. John's VA certifying officials. See last page of guide for contact information.
- Register for the Veteran New Student Orientation.
- Contact the St. John's Veteran Success Center to explore the many opportunities and resources available to you, including membership in the Student Veteran Association.

No Application fee.

St. John's University values your military training and experience. Your advisor will work closely with you to determine which of the following prior learning assessment pathways to pursue.

Evaluation of Transfer Credits

Students have the opportunity to apply up to 90 credit hours earned from other accredited institutions to their St. John's degree.* This can include credit for military training, such as those listed on the Joint Services Transcript (JST) or Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) transcripts. To process the credit transfer, applicants must provide an official transcript.

Credit for Work and Life Experience

Your academic advisor can help you identify college-level knowledge you may already possess and assist you with the following:

- Developing a portfolio to highlight your life experiences that may be equivalent to college-level study.
- Identifying specific standardized examinations, such as CLEP, ECE, and DSST, that you can take for course credit within your program. These exams test knowledge of college-level coursework.

Some program exclusions apply.*

St. John's academic advisors can evaluate your military experience to see how it can be translated into college credits. Military experience received through the Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard is translated onto your Joint Services Transcripts (JST), as shown below.

Visit <http://jst.doded.mil/official.html> to view an unofficial transcript or request an official copy. Your St. John's admission counselor can also request an official copy of your JST on your behalf.

Please note that the United States Air Force has not yet merged with this transcript system. Currently, all Air Force training, experience, and standardized test scores are captured on the Community College of the Air Force (CCAF) transcripts. You can obtain your CCAF by visiting www.airuniversity.af.mil/Barnes/CCAF/Transcripts.

St. John's University is committed to making a college degree within your financial reach. Prospective students are encouraged to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The Office of Student Financial Services is available to help you with the application process, as well as discuss payment plan options, federal loans, and grants such as the New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) and the Federal Pell Grant program. Our military and veteran benefit specialist is ready to walk you through the military and veteran benefit process.

We also offer a range of scholarships for both new and continuing students.

First-Year Student Scholarships

First-year applicants may be eligible for a merit award. Applicants do not apply for these separately, as they are awarded upon acceptance into an academic program at St. John's. These merit awards are for four years of continuous undergraduate study and may range up to full tuition. These may also be combined with internal and external scholarship awards.

Transfer Student Scholarships

Transfer students may be eligible for merit- or nonmerit-based awards.

- Students who have received an Associate's degree are eligible for the Transfer Distinction Award. This award ranges from $15,000 to $17,000 per year, depending on the campus of record, for continuous undergraduate full-time study.
- Merit awards may be awarded to transfer students who do not have an associate's degree. These scholarships are determined by the student's cumulative college grade point average and are for continuous full-time study in an undergraduate program at St. John's. These awards range from $3,000 to $17,000 per year, depending on the campus of record.
- An additional $2,000 scholarship is awarded to members of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

More information on University tuition and fees and endowed scholarships can be found at stjohns.edu/FinancialAid.

As a service member or veteran, you may also be eligible for additional resources to help finance your education at St. John's University. See below for a list of popular scholarship programs. Eligible students are encouraged to apply. Please refer to the sponsoring organizations for deadlines, eligibility criteria, and updated information.

Pat Tillman Foundation, Tillman Scholars Program

Scholarship program offered for degree seeking veterans, service members, and/or their spouses who exemplify community leadership and volunteerism, academic achievement, and who possess a record of military service and/or community impact as a military spouse. Award amount varies. patillmanfoundation.org

AMVETS National Scholarship

American Veterans (AMVETS) offers scholarships on the basis of financial need, academic promise, and merit. Awarded to veterans, service members, and families who have exhausted government aid or who might not otherwise have the financial means to further their education. amvets.org

Troops to Teachers

National program designed to help military personnel successfully transition into a career in teaching, with the purpose of educating our nation's youth in critical subject areas. The program also provides stipends up to $10,000. troopstoteachers.net

Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society, Education Assistance Program

Program that provides interest-free grants and loans ranging from $500 to $3,000 to undergraduate spouses or children of active duty, retired, or deceased Sailors or Marines. Students must attend an accredited institution. nmcrs.org/pages/education-loans-and-scholarships

Army Women's Foundation, Legacy Scholarship Program

This foundation provides grants to women soldiers, past and present, and their lineal descendants to help them attain their educational goals. Undergraduate or graduate student recipients will receive a grant up to $2,500. armywomensfoundation.org/scholarships

AFCEA Foundation

This foundation promotes excellence in education and is committed to providing academic support to military personnel. Their program provides merit-based scholarships to active duty service members, ROTC students, war veterans, and disabled war veterans who attend an eligible program at an accredited four-year college or afcea.org

Veterans of Foreign Wars, Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship

MAXIMIZING YOUR MILITARY BENEFITS

In accordance with the US Department of Veterans Affairs education benefits programs, St. John's University works with military and veteran students to ensure awareness of programs for which they are eligible. We offer personalized advice including information on special benefits, living stipends, and available support services. Students are encouraged to utilize their benefits, as in some instances, 100 percent of tuition and fees may be covered. We honor an array of such programs. Please review the following options:

Chapter 1606–Selected Reserve (MGIB-SR)

Available to eligible members of the Selected Reserve from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and National Guard military branches.

Chapter 30–Montgomery GI Bill® Active Duty (MGIB-AD)

Provides up to 36 months of education benefits for eligible veterans. Monthly benefits are based upon several factors which include, but are not limited to, length of service, category, and type of training.

Chapter 31–Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Program (VR&E)

Helps eligible veterans and active duty service members with service-related disabilities prepare for separation from the military and find and maintain employment upon separation.

Chapter 33–The Post-9/11 GI Bill®

Provides education benefits and housing allowances to veterans. Those eligible must have served at least 90 aggregate days on active duty after September 10, 2001, or were honorably discharged with a service-related disability after serving 30 days.

Yellow Ribbon Program

Supplementary program under the Post-9/11 GI Bill® that helps cover tuition costs for eligible veterans in excess of their maximum Post-9/11 GI Bill® benefits. The VA matches the school's contributions for the eligible student.

Chapter 35–Survivors and Dependents Assistance (DEA)

Grants educational benefits to the dependents of those killed in action, missing, or disabled while serving. Recipients may be eligible to receive benefits for up to 45 months.

Transfer of Entitlement

Allows those who served and are eligible to receive education benefits to transfer the benefits to a spouse, children, or both. The US Department of Defense determines eligibility.

US Department of Veterans Affairs Student Work-Study Allowance Program

Eligible military members or their dependents can apply to participate in this work program while attending a college, vocational, or professional school. This is separate from federal work-study; the number of applicants accepted depends on job availability. All jobs must be VA-related.

Military Tuition Assistance (TA)

Pays tuition expenses for military members attending school. To be eligible, students must be active duty in the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, National Guard, or Coast Guard. Eligible students receive a specified allowance per semester hour, not to exceed an annual amount determined by the branch. As part of the tuition assistance program, money is paid by the military branch directly to the institution. Those eligible may also elect to participate in the Top-Up program (Montgomery GI Bill–Active Duty) to supplement the cost of additional tuition expenses while using military tuition assistance. Check with your unit’s educational branch office for up-to-date information regarding Military Tuition Assistance and the Top-Up program. Each branch pays a different amount and has its own criteria for eligibility, obligated service, application process, and restrictions.

Post-9/11 GI Bill®

Active duty members may be eligible to tap into their Post-9/11 GI Bill® benefits while they are serving. However, members will not be eligible to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program during this time, and other stipulations may apply. While you are serving, you may also be eligible to participate in veteran benefit programs. Please contact the Department of Veterans Affairs for more information regarding such programs and eligibility criteria.
